I'm open all of those dates. The agenda looks good.

Good morning,

I realize it has been over a month since we last talked. Brent and I are still planning on coming to New Mexico on September 4-6th. We were waiting to get a confirmed date from the Tribes to discuss Roca Honda, but we just have confirmation from 2 tribes for a date within the week of September 3rd. In order to move forward, I would like to firm up the dates that you are available.

After getting the dates you are available, we will work the schedules for meetings with other interested parties.

Thanks,

Stacey
